

How can I contact the Athens County Sheriff's Office?

You can call the administration number at 740-593-6633 or send an email to sheriffsmith@athenssheriff.com. The address is 13 W. Washington Street, Athens, OH 45701.

How can I submit a records request to the Athens County Sheriff's Office?

To submit a records request or policies regarding addiction drug offenses, visit the county prosecutor's website under "community justice." For all other policies contact the Athens County Prosecutor.

How do I send records request to the Athens County Prosecutor?

Contact the Prosecutor's office for records request information. Learn how to draft a records request with the ACLU of Ohio's Keep An Eye on Your Government: The Activists How-To Guide.

Southeastern Ohio Regional Jail:

The Southeastern Ohio Regional Jail serves the counties of Athens, Hocking, Moran, Perry, and Vinton and is run by a joint commission of county-level elected officials.

How can I submit a records request to the Athens County Sheriff's Office?

- Information needed to find records: type of incident (crash or complaint); location of incident; Sheriff's Office Case Number; date of the incident or time frame; name of a person involved in the incident; deputy's name.
- Submission types: Phone (740-566-4305); Email: aconnor@athenssheriff.com; mail/in-person 13 W. Washington Street | Athens, OH 45701. Hours: Monday-Friday from 8 a.m. - 4 p.m.
- To receive response documents to your request, provide your email address and mailing address, or visit in-person at 13 W. Washington Street | Athens, OH 45701.